

Lyndsey Blanks

Hancock Whitney Bank

With over 18 years of experience in the banking industry, Lyndsey Blanks has built a career centered around trust, relationships, and results. For the past five years, she has specialized in SBA lending, where her passion for helping small businesses thrive truly shines.

Based in Florida's beautiful Panhandle, Lyndsey is deeply rooted in her community and actively involved with several nonprofit organizations that support local growth and development. She takes pride in being a reliable resource for business owners and is grateful for the strong network of Centers of Influence who help her stay connected and busy doing what she loves most – empowering entrepreneurs to achieve their dreams.
